(No alcohol or pets please!)

Come, help us celebrate Dad ...

and enjoy a grilled Bratwurst or Cervelat!

- 12 noon – Meet at the Hessian Avenue Pavilion
- 1:30 PM Guided tour of the James and Ann Whitall House
Experience Revolutionary history at Red Bank! Tour the James and Ann Whitall House anytime from 1:00-4:00 p.m. From this 18th-century brick and stone home the Quaker Whitall family witnessed the Battle of Red Bank in 1777, an important American victory over attacking Hessians during the Revolutionary War. Butterfly House included!
- 3 PM – Savor delicious sausages hot off the grill with rolls or bread, available for $5 each, which includes lemonade, tea and/or coffee
- Leftover sausages will be sold afterward if available
- IMPORTANT: Bring along Dad's favorite salad or dessert to share

This will be our official June Jass.
Don't forget your cards!

Red Bank Battlefield Park is situated on the Delaware River and has much to offer ... relive some local history or just relax and enjoy the nice scenery and breeze.
