(No alcohol or pets please!)

Come, help us celebrate Dad...and enjoy a grilled Bratwurst or Cervelat!

12 noon – meet at the Hessian Avenue Pavilion
1:30 PM guided tour through James & Ann Whitall House

Experience Revolutionary History at Red Bank! Tour the James and Ann Whitall House from 1:00-4:00 p.m. From this 18th-century brick and stone home the Quaker Whitall family witnessed the Battle of Red Bank in 1777, an important American victory over attacking Hessians during the Revolutionary War. Butterfly House included!

around 3 PM – savor some yummy sausages hot off the grill with rolls/bread, available for $5 which includes lemonade, tea and/or coffee

Why not bring along Dad's favorite salad or dessert to share?

There also might be an "unscheduled" Jass,
so don't forget your cards !

Red Bank Battlefield Park is situated on the Delaware River and has much to offer...
relive some local history or just relax and enjoy the nice scenery and breeze.

Reservations must be made on or before June 13th – call or e-mail* :
